One of the members of the commitrleys had advised Wallach to turn they now have. Wallach was a "good as possible. According to this mener the Atcherley couple are getting practically all the financial benefit the Orpheum, the local Odd Fellow rom the Wallach patients, while the Canton having a hand in the sale of great man himself is barely able to nake a living. He said that each Tickets are being rapidly disposed patient had to pungle up a fee of $12.50 for the first consultation. Of this Wallach got half and Dr. Atcherle yhalf. Out of the $6.25 which Wal-inch thus obtained he was charged $3.10 for medical supplies, etc., and from the $3.15 which still remained he had to dig up his board bill and office rent. What little money Wallach had left after all these charges been met, was infinitesimal, at east, it had not been sufficient to on able him to pay an old board bill which he owed. The reason why Wallach did not discontinue this disadvantageous arrangement is said to be that he can only practice as hie assistant of a ficensed physician, and as Dr. Atcherley is presumably the only such who will take him in, he is thus virtually between the devil and
